GRAND RALLY AT GREENSBORO.—We learn positively that Carl Schurz and and other distinguished speakers will be at Greensboro on the 27th inst. A good time is expected there.

LEFT FOR THE WEST.—Messrs. Doolittle, Tipton, Miller and Gov. Walker left upon the Western bound train yesterday evening. The three first named gentlemen will speak at various points in the West before the first of August, and it is more than probable Governor Walker will again be in the State within the next two weeks.

THE BARBECUE YESTERDAY.—The Barbecue at Mordecai's Grove yesterday was gotten up by Dr. Blacknall, of the Yarboro House, and notwithstanding he had only two days notice, all had an abundance.

As a hotelist and feedist, the Dr. has but few equals, and in this instance he has proven himself equal to all emergencies by handling a crowd of some four thousand with the same ease that he manages his Hotel. May the Doctor live to feed his friends many days to come.

VOL. I. RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 17, 1872. NO. 118.

IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL.—The sixty-first session of this school, located in this city, will open to-day. See advertisement elsewhere.

TEMPERANCE ADDRESS.—Rev. Paul J. Carraway, President of the State Council of the Friends of Temperance, and Rev. A. W. Mangum, of this city, will deliver Temperance Addresses at the Common's Hall, this (Wednesday) evening, commencing at 8½ o'clock. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

GEN. W. R. COX.—The Southern Home, alluding to the nomination of this gentleman for the Senate from Wake county, says:

"This able and gallant gentleman has received the Conservative nomination for the Senate, in Wake. He was one of the bravest of the brave during the war, and has been as true as steel amidst all the corruptions brought into the State by Radical carpet bagism. The General will make a splendid canvasser. All honor to the true and tried soldier."

THE CANDIDATES IN JOHNSTON.—The canvass in Johnston began at Clayton, on yesterday, (Monday.) The Sheriff, E. G. Hill, who is sheriff "by order of the Court," and against the wishes of the people, as shown by their votes, and who is now Radical candidate, announced himself. Holt, a young man of business intelligence, the Conservative nominee, followed briefly—then gave way for the "standing turn" Bryant Hinnant, Radical nominee for the Senate. He gave out that he was a candidate for the "next legislater;" that he was opposed to "a milintery" government; that he was not in favor of Grant's "issuing the writ of habis corpus." That is what he says—you can guess at his meaning, which is doubtless hidden in "de archives of grabity." Had no objection to any of the Constitutional amendments proposed, but wanted to take them one at a time instead of all together.

W. H. Avera, the christian gentleman and patriot, Conservative nominee for the Senate, took the stand, nor did he leave it until the inevitable Hinnant—"the standing turn" was sore-back. Hinnant looked "as sour as Kraut," and mad as a bull. The fact is, he "aint purty," noway.

Then came Coats, the Rad nominee for the "lesislater," who declared himself a Republican-Democrat. Every Radical candidate has his own platform and party name. Said he could not speak—had no education—did'nt read the papers, and was not posted, that is, did'nt know much. Your correspondent moralized thusly: A man is under some circumstances, excusable for his ignorance, but 'tis presumption—the offshoot of ignorance, in a man to offer to perform for the people important duties of which he is confessedly ignorant. Coats is no doubt a good sort of a fellow, and would be better, if he knew a little more.

The old man Massey, (pity the sorrows of a poor old man) the other Rad, slowly, cautiously and tremblingly came on the stand. He looked sad. I wondered what the old man was so sorrowful about. We waited and listened for something to drap—all was silent. I knew it was not a funeral occasion, because very soon the colored brothers began to laugh at his numness, as Josh Billings would say. The negroes became ashamed of their candidate and began to break ranks. The old man never told who or what he was. Herolike, he marched up the hill—and—then—down again. That was all. Coats and Massey reminded me of the obedient little fool of a boy, who had been in the habit of talking too much in company. He was going into some strange company one day, and Mamma says, "Sam, don't you talk to-day, it you do the folks will find out you are a fool." Obedient Sam went out. Some of the crowd asked Sam some questions, but like Massey he was mum, as Mamma had directed. By no means could they draw anything out of Sam that day, and one of the party, seeing that he refused to talk, told him he was a fool. Sam went home, and to his Mamma saying: "When I talk they say I am a fool, and to-day I wouldn't talk and they found out I was a fool any way." These candidates had better do like Sam, go home and stay there.

Joyner and Jesse Hinnant, Conservative nominees, acquitted themselves finely. Capt. Hinnant made the best stump speech of his life. Joyner, alluding to the Radical Convention in Raleigh, said that Jim Harris was Chairman. This "standing turn" Hinnant denied, saying he was only temporary. Joyner responded that he stood corrected, that Harris was only their first choice. Then came Dr. J. T. Leach, who said he was candidate for Commissioner. He held that infamous circular "Read and Circulate," in his hands, and demolished it so that its own daddy, if it had one, would not know it.

There will be great need of some money or some other power to carry Johnston county for the Radicals.

It is said that Blow-Your-Horn-Billy will carry a number of Democratic votes in Johnston. Shame on the Conservative that will allow his vote to be bought by patronage. Suppose he has given Conservatives positions on the road. He could not find Radicals to fill them. Never can I sell my principles for railroad free tickets or other patronage. I can't vote to promote principles at war with my interest and my conscience, not even for "thirty pieces of silver." I admire gratitude, but I pay back in kind. It must always be understood that my vote is not for sale. If a man lend me a horse, I'll lend him mine. If he gives me a position on a railroad, I'll give him one when I get to be president. If he gives me a free ticket, I'll give him one some of these times, maybe. But that is not the price of my vote. You may bet on Johnston.

Yours occasionally,

NEMINE.

THE GREAT RATIFICATION MEETING IN RALEIGH.

A LARGE CROWD IN ATTENDANCE.

THE PROCESSION.

Senators Doolittle, Tipton, Miller and Ransom. Ex-Governor Graham, Gov. Walker, of Virginia, and other Distinguished Men on the Stand.

THE ORGANIZATION.

The great ratification meeting of the nominees of the Baltimore Convention, occurred in this city yesterday. At an early hour in the morning the streets were thronged with country people, large numbers coming by private conveyance even from adjoining counties. The special trains on the Raleigh & Gaston, the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line, and each end of the North Carolina Central Railroad which arrived about 9 o'clock, augmented the number of visitors in the city to 3000 persons at the lowest estimate.

At ten o'clock the procession was formed in front of the Yarboro House, as follows:

1st. Oak City Brass Band.
2nd. Marshals.
3rd. Carriages containing Speakers.
4th. Honored Guests in carriages.
5th. Citizens in carriages and on horse
6th. Citizens on foot.

Marching through the streets designated by the programme, the large and long procession reached Mordecai's grove at 10½ o'clock.

W. S. Mason, Esq., Chairman of the Liberal Republican State Executive Committee, called the meeting to order, and announced for President of the meeting Hon. D. M. Barringer, of Wake, who was elected by acclamation.

The following Vice Presidents were chosen:

Paul C. Cameron, of Orange; Col. John A. Gilmer, of Guilford; Col. Ham. C. Jones, of Mecklenburg; Hon. T. C. Fuller, of Cumberland; Capt. J. J. Davis, of Franklin; Dr. W. R. Hicks, of Granville; Dr. R. K. Smith, of ——; J. H. Separk, of Wake; Hon. D. R. Goodloe, of Warren; H. T. Jordan, of Person; E. W. Pou, of Johnston; J. H. Haughton, of Craven, and Dossey Battle, of Nash.

The gentlemen of the press were requested to act as Secretaries.

The Hon. D. M. Barringer, in taking the chair, delivered a short, appropriate and well-timed address; after which he introduced to the large audience the Hon. JAS. R. DOOLITTLE, of Wisconsin.

The distinguished Senator came forward amidst a general tumult of applause, the band at the same time sounding the salute.

He said in addressing his audience as fellow citizens that he thanked God that he was permitted to speak of North Carolinians as fellow citizens, that years ago it was his pleasure to receive instructions from his venerable friend Dr. Mason, who had on this occasion petitioned the throne of Grace, when a professor in New York College, and it was indeed a pleasure afforded him to be here to-day.

Mr. Doolittle spoke at some length in regard to the centralization of the powers of the government, towards which the present administration was surely drifting, and warned the people of the direful results that would inevitably follow if the administration should succeed in the coming election.

He spoke of the law allowing the use of Federal troops at the ballot box in cities where there are over 20,000 voters, of the attempt to secure by legislative enactment the control of telegraph lines, the power of the Executive to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, and other acts, as clearly and positively indicating the intention of the party towards centralization. He denounced in unmeasured terms the many flagrant acts of usurpation and constitutional violations by the dominant party and their head. In referring to the past differences between the people of the North and those of the South, he said, he believed that it was intended by our forefathers that the States should all remain in the Union, and that they should have equal rights and protection; that they never intended that they should be destroyed by secession and disunion. Now that this question was forever settled, let us give the hand over the bloody chasm and come together as one man to defend and protect the liberties of the people. He knew well the cause of dissensions between the North and the South; he knew how the people of the South had suffered; he knew their losses, and for one he could appreciate a part of their sufferings; he had buried his oldest son who fell in battle fighting for the same principle, constitutional liberty, that the Southern people thought they were fighting and for which they fought desperately in earnest. He believed the power of centralization equally as dangerous as secession, and thought a union of all the States necessary that the citizens of one State may enjoy all the rights and privileges of all other States.

He read extracts from Mr. Greeley's letter of acceptance, in which he planted himself firmly in opposition to all the acts he had referred to, which was the main plank of the administration platform.

He then addressed the colored men present, told them of the folly of voting in a solid phalanx against the moral and intelligent citizens of the South, and though they might continue to do so yet it would do no good. Horace Greeley would be elected even beyond peradventure of doubt, though he did not receive one of their votes; that he would carry enough Northern States, without the aid of a single Southern State, to elect him, and then have fifty votes to spare.

He briefly referred to the celebrated speech of Horace Greeley's, that in the final consummation of the rebellion, he was in favor of "charity to all and malice towards none," that this unalterable position, he assumed immediately after the rebellion, he never gave up, but sacrificed not only his personal popularity, but great pecuniary losses in maintaiaing it. For siguing the Jeff Davis' bond, he lost thousands of subscribers to his paper, and also to a work he had nearly ready for the press. But while he knew the consequences before hand, he was not detered from his noble act. He was also held to trial for this famous act by the Union Club of New York, and the characteristic and manly reply of this great man, read by the speaker was received with shouts of applause.

Mr. Doolittle continued his eulogy on the life and character of Mr. Greeley, concluding it by saying that he had the largest head, the kindest heart, and the most extensive information of any man in this country.

In referring to Grant, Mr. Doolittle said, I do not wish to abuse or speak unkindly of any man. He is well known to you, fellow citizens. His life, his acts, his administration speak for themselves. I will in charity draw the veil.

He briefly referred to Mr. Lincoln's administration, in which he said but for the assassination of President Lincoln, an act for which the perpetrators are alone responsible, the same state of affairs would have been in 1865 that we now see coming; that Mr. Lincoln would have inaugurated the plan of peace and restoration that will occur in the administration of Horace Greeley.

In conclusion, he urged upon the people of the South to be guilty of nothing in the campaign that the Radical papers might even magnify as outrages, &c.; to be moderate, quiet and peaceful, but to work, and work in earnest till the day of election. He said there were efforts being made by the Administration party that people little knew of, to car the State by storm in the August election—that two of the President's Cabinet officers, something heretofore unheard of in the history of this government, were canvassing the State in the interest of their chief, as he was informed; that he learned from the speech of Governor Vance at Weldon, that there were 3000 people in North Carolina charged with ku kluxing, and that they had been promised release by deputy marshals if they would support the administration party. He was also informed that the Goldsboro Messenger, edited by a strictly reliable and responsible gentleman, had stated upon its own authority that parties holding claims against the United States government for losses sustained during the war, had been promised payment provided they would support the administration party.

These and many other schemes were being resorted to, and he warned the people of North Carolina to be on the alert.

We regret that we are necessarily compelled to abreviate and disconnect the able speech of Senator Doolittle, but necessity compels it. He was on the stand one hour and twenty minutes, and his audience could have listened to him five hours longer without fatigue.

EX-SENATOR MILLER, OF GEORGIA,

was next introduced to the audience. Though the great reputation of this distinguished Southern orator had preceded him, yet the people were not prepared for the great intellectual feast, furnished by Senator Miller. Immediately after his speech we were approached by Senator Doolittle, who asked if we could not furnish a stenographic report of the speech that it might be used as a campatgn document in the North, especially. This we considered as the highest compliment that could have been paid the Georgia statesman and orator. We could not even pretend to give even a synopsis of the speech, knowing that we would fall so far short of the mark that it would be injustice for us to attempt it.

He reviewed briefly the general shortcomings of the Grant administration, but his speech was devoted almost exclusively to the reconstruction laws, and the finger that Grant had in the pie of the Southern States, Georgia especially. His scathing rebukes and sarcastic references to the powers that be, greatly enthused his attentive audience, who manifested their appreciation by constant and frequent bursts of applause. He too, paid a glowing tribute to the life and character of the sage of Chappaqua, and promised to carry his State overwhelmingly in November next.

After the conclusion of Senator Miller's speech, the Prosident announced that an intermission would now be given till 3 o'clock, at which time several distinguished speakers then on the stand, would address the people. He invited the large audience present to partake of the barbecue prepared for them, and adjourned the meeting till the appointed hour.

THE DINNER.

The dinner prepared by and under the supervision and direction of Dr. Blacknall, of the Yarborough House, was in every respect a success. The quantity was sufficient, and the quality good. Dr. Blacknall deserves especial credit for the energy and work that was necessary to get up the dinner, but two days notice was all he had. The meats were well cooked and seasoned, the tables were eligibly erected, and the accommodations ample.

Dinner being over, music from the band announced the hour for assembling at the stand.

GOV. WALKER, OF VIRGINIA,

was the first speaker introduced. So closely identified with us as Governor of our sister State of Virginia, Governor Walker was welcomed by his large audience as if he had been a native "tar heel." His tall and commanding appearance, decidedly the handsomest man on the stand, graceful, dignified and Vance-like stride on the rostrum, his open, manly and honest countenance, at once fastened him in the hearts of the audience, and it was with difficulty that he tore himself from the stand, and for the first time in our experience we have to report an encore to a political speaker. He said that North Carolina was now just as Virginia was in 1868, and the doors of North Carolina stood open for the triumph that Virginia experienced then. He appealed to the people to do their duty on the 1st of August next, and all would be well. Let North Carolina send forth the first shot of the battle that would sweep the nation in a victorious triumph in November next. Let the people go to work and stand shoulder to shoulder in the great contest on which depended their liberty and freedom.

The Governor was cheered throughout, and such was the impression made by his eloquent and well delivered remarks, that, as above stated, it was with difficulty he left the stand. A general shout of "go on," "don't stop," came from all parts of the ground.

SENATOR TIPTON, OF NEBRASKA, was next introduced.

He desired especially to apply his remarks to his brethren of the Republican party. He referred to the great opposition they had made against the Pierce administration, and for the very same fight, for the same cause, they now fought the administration of Grant.—He spoke of the organization of the Liberal Republican party in the United States Senate, by Republicans, among whom was Senator Wilson, but now had sold out for a hope of the Vice Presidency. Having recently reported the able and eloquent speech of this gentleman, we'll pass on to the next in order.

EX-GOVERNOR WM. A. GRAHAM, OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The Governor briefly referred to National affairs, but devoted his speech to the great importance of the State campaign. He said, after reviewing briefly Grant's administration, that the end of the fight between the North and the South was the commencement of the quarrel, and the act of the Liberal Republicans at Cincinnati was the olive branch of peace, which the people of the South would accept. He was willing to meet his Liberal Republican friends on more than half way ground.

In speaking of the State campaign, the Governor said that Judge Merrimon, our gallant standard bearer, was carrying our banner through the West, and creating as much enthusiasm as ever did John Morehead.

Lack of space necessarily cuts short a further report of Governor Graham's address.

Judge Fowle and Gen. W. R. Cox, of Wake; Col. Masden, of Forsythe; Capt. J. J. Davis, of Franklin; Hon. D. R. Goodloe, of Warren, were called out, each of whom delivered short and appropriate speeches.

We neglected to state that after the opening address of Gen. Barringer, Rev. Dr. Mason of this city opened the exercises of the day with prayer.

THE HONOR OF THE "FIRST GREELEY CLUB."—The discussion arose in Metropolitan Hall on Monday night as to what place in the State was entitled to the honor of raising the first Greeley Club. Raleigh claimed it, Rocky Mount claimed it, and so did Greensboro. In connection with this, Mr. Dossy Battle hands us the subjoined communication:

Editors News:

As a little discussion arose last evening, as to the location of the first Greeley and Brown Club in North Carolina, let me again ask the question, what town boasts that honor? Certainly not your city. Rocky Mount formed one several weeks before the Baltimore Convention met, leaving the organization incomplete, until we could hear from that body, as to the election and officers. Wednesday evening the wire flashed us the glorious tidings, on Thursday we met, and the writer had the honor to be chosen President, and Messrs. A. P. Chalk and J. H. Thorp, Secretaries.

As Raleigh was not the first, may she lack several hundred of being the last.

RALEIGH, N. C., March, 1872

Mr. Stillman, Agent of "The Howe Sewing Machine":

We have had your Machine in use in our family for four months, and can safely recommend it to the public for its simplicity, beauty as a piece of furniture, and as a "help" to those of us with large families. It is a "sine qua non." We have made with it, in addition to the usual household work, over one hundred garments, large and small, including Pants, Coats, dresses, &c., some of which were heavily trimmed, two of the dresses containing from 60 to 70 yards of tucking. It is worked with much ease, requiring but little exertion. We would not be without one for three times its cost.

The Difficulty Between Gen. Butler and the Khedive Officers.

ALEXANDRIA, EGYPT, July 16

A military commission is now sitting to inquire into the affair between Consul General Butler and the Khedive officers Generals Loring, Reynolds and Maj. Campbell. They testify to circumstances, which in their judgment, clearly show that the affray was premeditated by Butler and his friends, their purpose being to take the life of Major Campbell, who was dangerously wounded in the affray. Butler left Alexandria on the mail packet steamer this morning.

The Doctor Rufus Bratton's Abduction Case.

LONDON, ONTARIO, CANADA,
July 16th, 1872.

The case of Dr. Rufus Bratton, abducted from Canada on the 4th of June, and taken to South Carolina, came up on a remand to-day. Bratton arrived here Saturday, but was kept concealed until after the opening of Court, when he made his appearance to the great surprise of the defendants. His testimony shows that the Cornwall prisoners laid violent hands upon him on Waterloo street, and handcuffed him, with the assistance of the cab driver, and thrust him into the cars. That he protested to the last, and only yielded because he relied on the British Justice to sustain him in the end. The case has been further remanded.

REMEMBER.

Remember that Brogden, the Radical candidate for Lieutenant Governor, and Burns, the Radical candidate for Superintendent of Public Works, were intimates and associates of Littlefield.—They attended his midnight orgies at the National Hotel and persuaded other Senators to vote for the repeal of the Bragg Commission, which was about to expose the corruption of Littlefield, Swepson and others.

Remember that they, on the next day, voted in the Senate for the repeal of this commission.

Remember that Brogden subsequently offered Col. Humphreys $10,000 in State bonds to go his surety, and said he had more bonds deposited with a banker for sale.

Remember that when Brogden and Burns voted for this repeal, it was charged on them, in the Senate, that "gold or something" had been given to secure their votes.

Remember that Silas Burns, the Radical candidate for Superintendent of Public Works, in the interests of Littlefield and Swepson, made false representations concerning the Lockville lands, and got the Penitentiary Committee to sanction that swindle.

SENATOR TIPTON BEFORE THE GREELEY AND BROWN CLUB.

We had the pleasure of hearing the address of Senator Tipton, of Nebraska, before the Greeley and Brown club on on Monday night. Metropolitan Hall was well filled by a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Tipton spoke as a Northern man and a Republican. He arraigned Grant's Administration for its follies and crimes, and spoke of the beneficial effects that are sure to follow the Administration of Greeley. Mr. Tipton stated that there was a great uprising of the people of the North; and Greeley would be certainly elected without the vote of a single Southern State.

The speech was an able and interesting one, and was much applauded.

Col. Filkins, of New York, another Northern Republican, was introduced after Mr. Tipton, and made some patriotic remarks, which were well received. He gave a flattering account of the Greeley feeling in New York.

LET THE PEOPLE THINK.

Gov. Holden's administration cost the people one and a quarter million dollars!

This is five times as much as it ought to have cost.

Who did this evil against the people while they were impoverished and helpless, with the sword held over them?

The Radicals did it—the very men now on the Radical ticket did it, beginning with Gov. Caldwell.

They now ask the people for their confidence and to give them a new lease of power. Are the people prepared to grant such an unreasonable request?—Let them consider well before they do.

Another reign of Radicalism in North Carolina will sink them down still lower in poverty and ruin.

THE REMEDY.

It is needless to tell the people how thoroughly they have been oppressed, persecuted, outraged and impoverished by Radicalism. They know and feel the truth of all this more keenly than we can tell. They need a remedy. What is it? It is simple. It is within their reach and grasp. It is the ballot box. Let every good man go to work to induce his neighbor to join him in voting Radicalism to death on the first day of next month! Vote down the Radical ticket, and Radicalism will be dead forever!

INTIMIDATION.

Let the people remember that in 1870, the Radicals tried to carry the election by force and intimidation. Let them remember that struggle, and how nobly they came to their own relief and triumphed!

Let them now know that these same Radicals again propose to carry the election by force and intimidation. They make the threat through their organ in this city.

Will the people be thus intimidated? NEVER! March to the ballot-box, freemen, and vote down these shameless, unscrupulous dictators!

REMEMBER that Caldwell attended the Morganton Convention and permitted a fraudulent issue of stock to allow the Company to organize against the strenuous efforts of Vance and Merrimon.

This bogus stock was issued in the interest of Swepson!!

WHERE is the Agricultural College for which Congress gave us land scrip, that was sold for $125,000? It went into Radical hands. They invested it in special Tax Bonds, for the benefit of the swindlers.

PUBLIC printing for two years under Radical rule amounted to $69,185.49
Under Conservative rule for two years it will be not more than $34,292.01

THE expenses of administering the State government, except for Public Charities, under Conservative rule, was less than one-half what it was under Radical rule.

REMEMBER that Caldwell drew the Bill by which Swepson and Littlefield were enabled to swindle the State; that it is now on file in his hand-writing.

IMPORTANT LETTER ON THE SUBJECT OF LEAF TOBACCO. MR. STARBUCK'S OPINION.

The recent law on the subject of the tobacco tax is much misunderstood, and has given rise to considerable confusion. We therefore take pleasure in laying before our readers the following letter from Solicitor Starbuck on the subject—for which we are much indebted to J. J. Jackson, Esq., of Pittsboro:

[Correspondence Daily News.

PITTSBORO, July 13, 1872.

Editor of the Raleigh News:

SIR—Will you do me the favor to publish a copy herewith sent you of a letter from the Hon. D. H. Starbuck.

There is much diversity of opinion in this part of the State as to whether there was a tax on producers of leaf tobacco, who sold in small quantities to consumers. The letter was written by Mr. Starbuck in answer to one of inquiry from me. I am sure he will excuse its publication, in view of the importance to the public, of having an authoritative exposition of the law from a representative of the government.

Yours respectfully,
J. J. JACKSON.

P. S. The Raleigh "Era," "Sentinel," "New North State," "Blasting Powder" and other papers are requested to publish Mr. Starbuck's letter, so that the public generally may have accurate information on the subject, where there is such a conflict of opinion and so much confusion. J. J. J.

OFFICE OF U. S. ATTORNEY, FOR EASTERN DISTRICT,
July 6th, 1872.

J. J. JACKSON, ESQ:

My Dear Sir:—Although Mr. V. S. Lusk is the District Attorney of the District in which Chatham is embraced, and he is the proper person for you to apply to for the information asked in your letter of the 4th inst., yet as you desire an early answer, I will give it to you.

Prior to the Act of Congress of June 6th, 1872, the farmer could sell his leaf tobacco in bulk or at retail to consumers without payment of any special tax. The recent Act forbids the farmer selling it to consumers, unless he pays the retail leaf tobacco dealer's tax of $500. But he may sell tobacco, the product of his farm, to persons who have paid the special tax as leaf tobacco dealers, or to manufacturers of tobacco, snuff, or cigars, or to purchasers for export, without having any tax to pay, and dealers in leaf tobacco who have paid a tax of $25, under the old law, may continue to sell in unbroken packages, to dealers in leaf tobacco, snuff, tobacco and cigar manufacturers, that have paid their special tax as such dealers, and to such persons as are known to purchase for export. If the dealer in leaf tobacco or producer, wishes to sell leaf tobacco to consumers, they must pay the special tax of $500 per annum, imposed by said new law on retail dealers in leaf tobacco.

Very respectfully, &c.,
D. H. STARBUCK,
Dis't Attorney of Eastern District.

THE GRAND OUTPOURING YESTERDAY.

An immense crowd greeted the speakers at the great Greeley and Brown Mass-Meeting which came off at Mordecai's Grove in this city. A full report will be given in our local columns.

In the morning, the distinguished Ex-Senator from Wisconsin, Hon James R. Doolittle, and the eloquent Dr. Miller, of Georgia, lately United States Senator from that State, delighted the large audience with efforts replete with argument and eloquence, which produced the greatest enthusiasm.

Amid great applause the nomination of Greeley and Brown was ratified by a long, loud, united affirmation, after which the crowd partook of the barbecue and the refreshments which had been so abundantly supplied.

After dinner, speeches were delivered by Gov. Walker, of Virginia, Ex-Gov. Graham, Senator Tiption, of Nebraska, Judge Fowle, Col. Masten, Gen. W. R. Cox, Capt. J. J. Davis and Dan'l R. Goodloe.

HARRIS' ADDRESS.

James H. Harris, colored, has issued an address to the colored people of the State, which contains a very erroneous statement in regard to a personal difficulty between a white man and a colored man, in Halifax. Harris says the colored man had his throat cut by one Barnes, and died from the effects of the wound. He attributes the assault to political feeling—and says the murdered man was for Grant.

Harris has probably given the statement as he heard it.

We are in full possession of the facts as given to us by a gentleman of the highest character who witnessed the affray.

The white man Barnes was beastly drunk at the time. He inflicted a wound with his knife which was first thought to be a dangerous one, but turned out to be not serious. The wounded man is in no sort of danger. He is said to be for Greeley.

Barnes has been bailed by Judge Moore.

REMEMBER that the sacred School Fund was invested in worthless Special tax bonds after Judge Pearson had decided these Bonds to be null and void—and that this investment was made to help along the swindlers, by trying to create the impression that the bonds were good.

REMEMBER that our beautiful capito was converted into a den of iniquity during the reign of Littlefield, when Holden was Governor, Caldwell President of the Senate and Brogden a Senator.

GEN. LEVENTHORPE'S LETTER.

We call attention to the letter of Gen. Collett Leventhorpe, our candidate for Auditor, repelling the charges which have been made against him in some of the Radical papers.

The Radicals seem disposed to carry on a savage warfare of personal scurrility and unlicensed vituperation of our candidates.

Gen. Leventhorpe's letter was not necessary to set at rest the dark and infamous charges which have been made against him. The people of North Carolina know his character too well to believe him capable of the great cruelties which have been alleged against him. He is known as a humane, kind-hearted chivalrous gentleman—as one who is incapable of doing a mean or unworthy thing.

A NEW COTTON PICKING MACHINE.—A new cotton harvesting machine was exhibited Wednesday, at the Cotton Exchange in New York. The inventor claims that it will perform the work of fifty-two hands a day, collecting and gathering into bags the cotton from twelve acres, with the assistance of two men, one boy and a pair of mules. The cotton plant passes between two sections, and the foliage is left undisturbed for the second and third pickings. After the bags are filled they can be conveyed to the top of the machine and dumped off as it turns at the end of the row. It is to be hoped that the invention will succeed, but it is doubtful.

THE next Legislature will have to vote on the proposed constitutional amendments as a whole. Let the people vote only for those candidates who are pledged to support all the amendments.

WE CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE DEMOCRATIC PRESS OF THE STATE TO THE NOTICE IN OUR PAPER OVER THE STATE TICKET, AT THE HEAD OF OUR EDITORIAL COLUMNS.

MR. JAS. PIRSSON:
SIR:—The Piano which I purchased from you in September, 1870, is a very superior one. It has been frequently tested by competent judges, all of whom give unequivocal testimony to its excellence. I could not ask for a better instrument.
Very Respectfully,
W. G. SIMMONS.

RALEIGH, March 17, 1871.
MR. JAMES PIRSSON—Dear Sir: It affords me great pleasure to speak of the real merits and excellence of your Pianos—Great union Piano Co. I have used one of your instruments in my music room ever since last August, 1871, and candor compels me to say that I do not know of another make which I should prefer to your Piano. The instrument keeps remarkably well in tune, and not a string has been broken. Hoping that the demand for your Pianos will never cease,
I am yours most respectfully,

SPECIAL NOTICES.

TO THE SUFFERING.—The Rev William H. Norton, while residing in Brazil as a Missionary, discovered in that land of medicines a remedy for CONSUMPTION, SCROFULA, SORE THROAT, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA AND NERVOUS WEAKNESS. This remedy has cured myself after all other medicines had failed.
Wishing to benefit the suffering, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this remedy to all who desire it FREE OF CHARGE.
Please send an envelope, with your name and address on it. Address,
REV. WILLIAM H. NORTON,

THE HISTORY OF A NATIONAL REMEDY.—Here is the history of the most celebrated tonic of the age in a nutshell. In 1869, it was announced that a certain combination of vegetable ingredients, with a pure diffusive stimulant, was working wonders in the cure of chronic dyspepsia, nervous debility, liver complaint, periodical fevers, rheumatism and constitutional weakness. The unpretending name given to the specific was PLANTATION BITTERS. The statement attracted the attention of invalids everywhere. The new remedy received a fair trial, and the results more than confirmed all that had been said in its praise. Thenceforward it was a grand success. The business columns of the press spread the glorious news far and wide, and the martyrs to indigestion, biliousness, physical prostration and premature decay, as if by common consent, sought relief from the new vegetable restorative. They found what they sought. From that time to the present the increase in the demand for Plantation Bitters has been one of the most striking events in this age.
For Coughs, Bronchitis and Consumption, in its early stages, nothing equals Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

DR. TUTT'S PILLS is a purely vegetable concentration, for keeping the Bowels in natural motion and cleansing the system of all impurities, and a positive cure for Constipation. They restore the diseased Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, to a healthful action, while at the same time they brace and invigorate the whole system.

ROME, GA., January 11, 1871.
DR. WM. H. TUTT:
Dear Sir—Having used your Liver Pills and finding none that have done my wife or myself as much good, I would like to know if they would do as well North as here. I intend going North in March, and if they will have the same effect as in this climate, I want to take them oh with me. Hoping to hear from you soon,
I remain, your obed't servant,
HENRY A. HILLS.
Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye does not Stain the Linen.

A Pitiful Condition.

It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific disease; they suffer no positive pain; but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure. In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food, every organ is starved, every function interrupted.
Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two, to sink afterward into a more pitiable condition than ever (as it assuredly would do if some ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to,) but radically and permanently.
How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question, founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is easily given. Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time by administering temporary remedies, but wake the system up by recuperating the fountain-head of physical strength and energy, the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support.
By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence. Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, fit to be the material of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve and brain flows through the channels of circulation instead of the watery pabulum with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished. june 12-1m

STATE MATTERS.

☞ Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

WILMINGTON is cursed with rosin thieves.

JOSIAH TURNER, JR., and Col. Armfield will speak at Trap Hill, Wilkes county, July 24th.

THE Republicans of Greene county are not entirely agreed among themselves. The Republicans generally are in full agreement with the Devil.

THE scheme establishing a Medical College in Wilmington, is said to be progressing finely.

REGISTRATION is an important item just now. Every one should know that his name is properly registered before the day of election.

CALDWELL, Brogden and Burns hope for their election, and think with pleasure of Littlefield's free-bars, that used to comfort them in days gone by.

SEVERAL prominent colored men from the North are now engaged in canvassing the State for Greeley. Among the number is one Wm. M. Saunders, the custom house officer of Baltimore, who has recently withdrawn his name from the Grant electoral ticket in order to support Greeley.

THE negro man Cook, stabbed at Halifax on Friday last by Mr. James C. Barnes, of Wilson, subsequently died.—Barnes was arrested and lodged in jail at Halifax. The occurrence was occasioned by Barnes being under the influence of liquor, and had nothing political in its character.

THE Charlotte Democrat says that a friend writes from Plymouth (in the First Congressional District,) as follows:

"From present prospects of the Congressional campaign, I am inclined to believe that C. L. Cobb, Republican, present incumbent, will stay at home, and that Hon. David M. Carter will represent the people of the 1st District for the next two years. Lewis C. Latham and F. B. Satterthwait, candidates for the State Senate, are doing noble work for the Democratic Conservative party, and are worthy to be intrusted with the affairs of the State. Crops are looking well."

THE Richmond Dispatch thus alludes to the contest now pending in this State:

"All eyes are turned upon the old old North State. The Administration is devoting all its means and its depotism power to putting down all resistance there. The money of the Radicals is spent freely, and their efforts to enslave North Carolina show how desperate the chances of Grant have already become. Surely, if the arbitrary authority of Grant' his means of menace and intimidation, all fail to carry North Carolina, his defeat will be at once assured. This he and his followers know full well, and hence their superhuman efforts to win in that State. The people in North Carolina have the opportunity of covering themselves with glory. If they resist alike the threats and blandishments of power they will secure for themselves an undying fame."

THE Wilmington Journal has the following private letter from Major Hughes, which gives cheering news from the West. Says the letter:

"Since we left the East, Major Graham and myself have been constantly speaking and traveling. We spoke together at Martinsville, Madison, Danbury and Salem, where Major Graham left me for a few days, on account of sickness in his family. I then spoke at Farmington, Mocksville and Salisbury. Major Graham rejoined me at Statesville, where we had a very large meeting. We spoke at this place, (Marion) on yesterday. To-day we go to Asheville, speak there, at Shufordsville, Hendersonville, Marshall, Burnsville and Kelsey's Store—then in Transylvania, and so on further West.

"We found the people thoroughly aroused everywhere. Our meetings are always well attended, and in many places very largely so. Gains are reported in almost every locality. Our friends claim a gain of five hundred votes in Iredell county. This county (McDowell) it is thought will give two hundred majority; heretofore it has given less than one hundred. The Radicals seem dispirited.

* * * * * * *

"The people here are so anxious for us to remain in the West that I fear we will not be able to reach the East in time to make any speeches. I regret this particularly, as I have promised some of our friends in Anson, Richmond and other counties, to address them before the election. Please make the explanation in your paper."

A Heroic Deed.

There are many deeds of personal bravery of the highest type in private life, which, though not pertaining to the "glorious circumstances" of war, are as much entitled to admiration as any occurrences of the deadly breach or crashing charge. One of this character occurred lately in Pennsylvania. A locomotive, which had been abandoned by its engine, near Shamkin, after the cars had become disconnected by an accident, went flying along the rails at a speed of thirty-five miles an hour. In a few minutes the passenger train from Sunbury was due, and if the engine kept on a collision would be inevitable, the results of which would unquestionably involve loss of life and property. A young man named Miles Gray, a railroad employee, took in the situation at a glance, and as the locomotive was dashing by he sprung upon it and succeeded in stopping it just three minutes before the passenger train arrived. The action involved a great personal risk, and doubtless prevented a most serious calamity. Such a brave act ought not to be passed unnoticed by the railroad authorities.

The Radical negro State Convention of South Carolina, is to meet in Columbia on the 20th August.

MESSRS. EDITORS: Following the leading Radical orators in their tour through the State, and cleaving to their steps like the slime on the trail of the serpent, there appears a small sheet which may be considered, 'par excellence,' the campaign document of the party, and a most worthy monument of its virtue and defamatory skill. The names of the Democratic-Conservative ticket are assailed with more or less malignity, and the missiles of calumny, cool assertion and impudent lying, are indifferently employed in this infernal broadside. My own name and character have received the distinctive compliment of its most rare abuse. Anything would be preferable to its approval.

The charges of which I am the object may be briefly stated to be:

1. That I arrested and dragged to a bull-pen forty-two respectable women of Randolph county.

I say that I never arrested, or caused to be arrested, any woman of Randolph county, by any order, written or verbal. This charge is therefore false.

2. That I sanctioned the torture of one Mrs. Owen, and, it is even insinuated that I witnessed and aggravated her sufferings. No lie more heartless and wicked was ever invented to injure the fame of any human being. I denounce the liar. I appeal to my unblemished character, established by 28 years of citizenship. I appeal to the Confederate soldiers of the State, and to every man and woman of honor in North Carolina, whether this thing is true of me—whether it is possible. They will answer that it is not. I despise the rest.

3. That I am responsible for Owen's death. Were I so, I should not shrink the responsibility. But I do not even know how he died. My orders were to offer pardon to all who came to me. No man was ever killed by my orders. Seven hundred men surrendered and acknowledged my humanity and good faith.

4. I am accused of having "shot and killed, one beautiful Sunday morning, young Northcote, and that his only crime was that he would not raise his arm to fight against the Union."

This is given on the saying of Judge Settle. We place all anonymous slanderers with their fit associates, and only peers—the paid informer, the common spy, and the common hangman. I refuse to receive the evidence of such 'canaile.' I decline to believe that Judge Settle—himself a gentleman—is the author of this false and studiously malevolent assertion. I pronounce the statement that I killed Northcote the wicked invention of an anonymous villian. I did not have Northcote shot. No man dare say so. I did not even know him. He was shot, I believe, by the soldiers of a command to which I did not belong, and more than a year before I came to Randolph county—in short, when I was a thousand miles away, in prison and wounded.

This infamous sheet, which contains charges of nearly corresponding atrocity against every candidate on the State ticket, is franked and sent (and perhaps written) by a United States Senator to influence the election, and, like a Malay "running a muck," it goes on its degrading errand, stabbing and assailing character without conscience and consideration.

I pity the party which needs and designs to accept, such aid as this, from the very depths of my soul.

GEN. CLINGMAN'S APPOINTMENTS.

Gen. T. L. Clingman will address his fellow-citizens at the several points stated below. His brigade was largely made up from some of these counties—a brigade which, while under his command for nearly three years, was in many ardous engagements, never broke in battle, and never failed to do its full duty in the hour of trial.

The General hopes to meet as many of his old comrades as may find it convenient to come out to the appointments indicated.

A CARD.

To The people of North Carolina:

In view of the approaching election, and my present relation to them, I deem it worth while to inform the people that my attention has been called to a scurrilous and libelous paper, extensively circulated in this State, entitled "Read And Circulate."

This paper is anonymous, and does not purport to have the sanction of any Editor, Publisher, political Committee or any body, but it is sent to the people under the Congressional frank of Hon. John Pool United States Senator.

It appropriately makes its first appearance in an obscure weekly paper, published in Washington City, called the "National New Era," edited by a negro named Fred Douglass.

The circular is infamously false, scandalous, and criminal. It imputes to me and other gentlemen, some on and others off the Democratic Conservative ticket for this State, the most infamous crimes against society and individuals, and it is so false, wanton and criminal, that it is not surprising that it, is sent out to accomplish what evil it may without apparent sanction of, or attaching amenability to, any one.

It is so monstrously false and scandalous that I was amazed to learn that it was sent out to the people under the frank of Mr. Pool, and I therefore enquired of him, by letter, if it was so sent with his knowledge and consent. He informed me it was, but says it was a "rehash of newspaper articles." It is indeed a "rehash" made up in such an artful way as to charge in terms, by suggestion, artful argumentation, and innuendo against me and others, the most disreputable crimes and conduct against the people and State; and it illustrates a species of desperate and disreputable partizan warfare that can not be tolerated, much less justified, among a civilized people; nor do I believe the people of this State of any political party will do so.

So far as I am informed the Radical papers of the State, fruitful as they have been of misrepresentation and falsehood have not republished it.

I deem it due to the people and myself to say for the benefit of any such as might be misled by it, that in so far as it refers to myself the paper is in every material respect absolutely FALSE, SCANDALOUS, AND LIBELOUS, and I believe it is so in reference to the other gentlemen assailed.

In vindication of myself against this wanton attack, it is my purpose to bring suit against Pool, in the Superior Court of Wake, reserving to myself to take such other steps in the future as may be deemed proper.

I am more than willing that the truth shall be ascertained by a judicial tribunal for the better satisfaction of the public, and to the end, that professional politicians may learn that they cannot assail innocent men in such a savage way with impunity, I will give Mr. Pool the opportunity to make good the charges in the anonymous paper, if he can do so.

It has been suggested that such publications are legitimate in political contests like the present. This may be so according to the code of morals of a class of desperate political adventurers, but it is not so, in my judgment, among gentlemen, or a civilized and virtuous community. Nor do I believe the people of North Carolina of any party will endorse such shameless and groundless assaults upon innocent men, because they happen to be put forward by hundreds of their fellow-men for high, responsible and honorable offices.

The paper referred to is a base and criminal prostitution of the freedom of the press to accomplish the baser purposes of deceiving and misleading the popular mind. This good and patriotic men will not do, and the people of all classes may well distrust those who attempt it. A. S. MERRIMON.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE

IN THE

COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (502) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shocco Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs. Tract of Col. J. M. Heck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the flourishing Town of Ridgeway, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an Overseer's house, three cabins, corn-crib and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (¼) of the tract is in original growth of oak, hickory, &c., one-fifth in second growth pines. The soil is sandy, loam and chocolate—surface undulating—well watered, and about 80 acres of rich bottom land. It yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, &c. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

Dr. George Fields, who resides near the land, will take pleasure in showing it to persons wishing to examine it, and is authorized to negotiate for its sale.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th, ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of thousands of Dollars in Life Premenms are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

TO LAND OWNERS

Over fifty families who come to North Carolina through my Agency within the last eighteen months have bought Farms, Timber and Mineral Lands. A much larger number have visited this State, many of whom will return and settle. Others are arriving every week. I have many inquiries for IMPROVED FARMS of all sizes near Railroads. I have at present several special inquiries for LARGE TRACTS OF PINE LAND near Railroad or navigable river for lumbering; also for WHITE OAK TIMBER. Owners of such farming and timber lands who wish to sell should address me without delay.

WEDNESDAY.....JULY 17, 1872.

THE TIME TO COME.

This earth s weary waiting time,
The world is full of sorrow,
But soon within a cloudless clime
Will dawa a brighter morrow;
For that we watch, for that we wait,
It is the same old story,
And sometime through the Future's gate
Will come the promised glory.

Not ours perchance, the bliss of those
Who greet its full appearing,
Yet still triumphant o'er all foes
We know that it is nearing;
When truth and right shall grandly rise,
And yield to know oppressing,
And on all hearts the opening skies
Shall shower their richest blessing.

But while we look with eager trust
For every welcome token,
It may not come till "dust to dust,"
Has o'er our graves been spoken.
We helped the precious seed to sow,
We bore it forth with weeping,
Not ours the harvest-joy to know,
Not ours the golden weeping.

Thank God that One can see,
E'en from such small beginning;
No counts the life in vain to be,
That boasts no outward winning.
Without a thought of human praise
We'll bravely bear each burden,
Until beyond these mortal days
We clasp the longed for guerdon.

WATSON'S & CLARK'S

HIGH GRADE

Super-Phosphate of Lime.

Composed entirely of the Charleston Bone Phosphate, Sulphuric Acid and Ammonia. Warranted to analyse seven per cent. of Soluble Phosphoric Acid and one per cent. of Ammonia.

We are prepared to offer this reliable and superior Super-phosphate—after a test of more than five years in the cotton growing States of South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, where its record is second to none other manufactured—not excepting Peruvian Guano and Pure Ground Bone, (having a better record for cotton than those)—to Planters and Dealers—in any quantity—at any railroad depot in the State, or at the factory, upon satisfactory terms.

Price per ton, delivered at any station on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad east of Henderson, or on the Wilmington and Weldon road north of Rocky Mount, for cash.

Put up in bags—very stout—for immediate use—or in good barrels—which we recommend as better, owing to the high grade of the article as ordered. Circulars and testimonials furnished upon application. All orders and communications addressed to
